

Prayer for Peace on Earth
By M. Lee Bozeman

O Divine Infant Jesus, Thou art our Blessed Prince of Peace! Upon the arrival of Thine Holy Nativity Thy love, beauty, tenderness and mercy illuminated the gloom of the night sky with a star for all to see. May this same brilliant star that led the three kings to Thee draw my heart and the hearts of all men, women, and children to the love of Thy Sacred Heart in which contains all the glorious treasures of the Divinity and of heaven. May also this harbinger of peace radiant with the splendor of Thy magnificent virtues bring forth a true transformation of spirit in our homes, families, friends, enemies, and all Nations. O my beloved Infant Jesus, Sublime Deity, there is unrest in Thy world because of the sins of men. Thy wondrous gift of life and this precious earth have been overcome by selfishness, lust, pride and anger. Too often we fail to show love and kindness to others and to be grateful for the blessing of each day. Open the eyes of Thy people to the beauty Thou hast created and send us Thy peace. Amen.

Prince of Peace, have mercy on us!

© 2008 Holy Reflections
www.holyreflections.com

Prayer for Peace on Earth
By M. Lee Bozeman

O Divine Infant Jesus, Thou art our Blessed Prince of Peace! Upon the arrival of Thine Holy Nativity Thy love, beauty, tenderness and mercy illuminated the gloom of the night sky with a star for all to see. May this same brilliant star that led the three kings to Thee draw my heart and the hearts of all men, women, and children to the love of Thy Sacred Heart in which contains all the glorious treasures of the Divinity and of heaven. May also this harbinger of peace radiant with the splendor of Thy magnificent virtues bring forth a true transformation of spirit in our homes, families, friends, enemies, and all Nations. O my beloved Infant Jesus, Sublime Deity, there is unrest in Thy world because of the sins of men. Thy wondrous gift of life and this precious earth have been overcome by selfishness, lust, pride and anger. Too often we fail to show love and kindness to others and to be grateful for the blessing of each day. Open the eyes of Thy people to the beauty Thou hast created and send us Thy peace. Amen.

Prince of Peace, have mercy on us!

© 2008 Holy Reflections
www.holyreflections.com

